

I agree with the ARRL recommendations for changing the amateur license structure to 3 classes of license and not having 2 grandfather classes. It would simplify the structure and be a much cleaner arrangement.